Eve Dugas in her baptism dress.

Eve Dugas and godchild Inez Guillot. Eve was 15 yrs. old then.

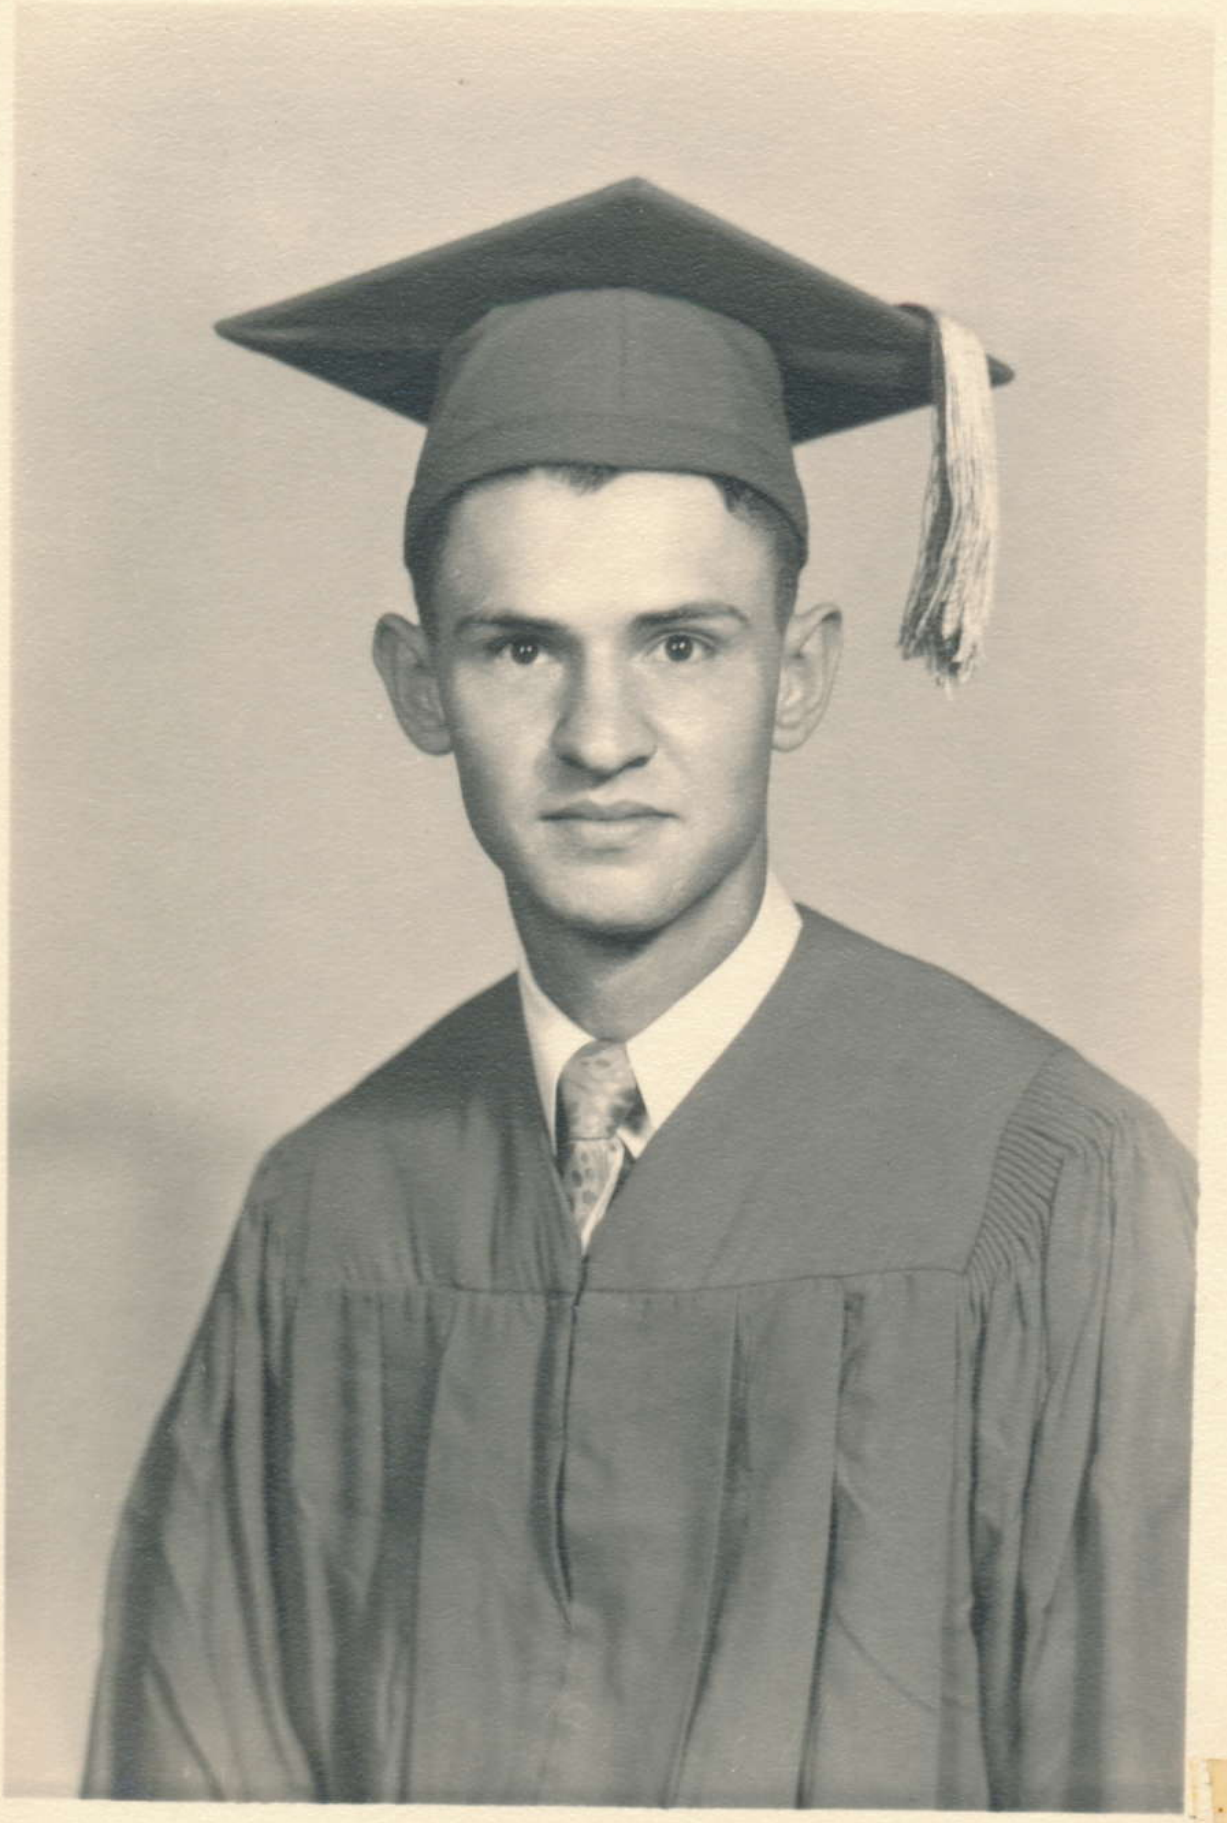
POST CARD

CORRESPONDENCE

ADDRESS

A PLACE A STAMP HERE

Ned Guilbeau



Ned Gilbeau,
Graduate of Scott
High - 1950

2 SLI Boys To Get FFA Awards At Kansas City

Two Southwestern Louisiana Institute students will be awarded the degree of master farmer by the Future Farmers of America at a national FFA convention Oct. 8-12 in Kansas City, Mo.

The degree applicants, Ned Guilbeau of Scott and Bobbie Smith of Dry Prong, will attend the convention with James Holley, Lafayette, president of the SLI collegiate chapter of the FFA.

Guilbeau, a student of vocational agriculture, is also a candidate for nomination to a national office of the FFA. He is a past state president of the Louisiana FFA.

Smith is a student of agriculture engineering. Holley is also a vocational agriculture student.

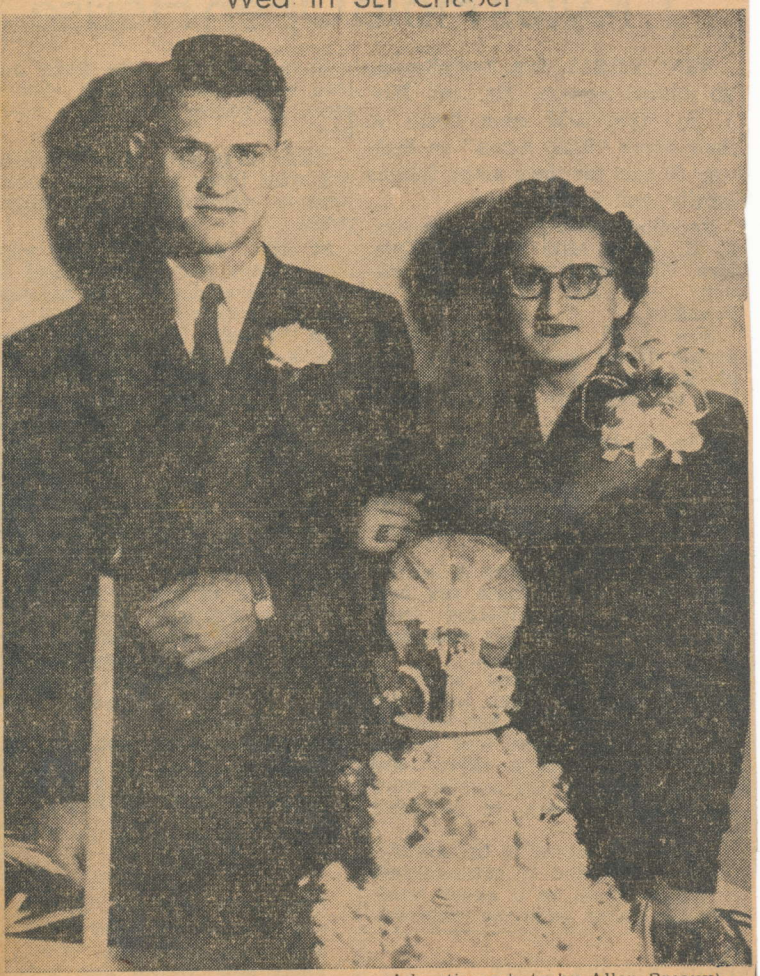
The three men will board a special Louisiana train at New Orleans for the trip to Kansas City.

O L W
CHAPEL

Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, Dec. 30, 1951

Ned Guilbeau & wife Shirley Melcomson

Wed in SLI Chapel



(Advertiser photo by Allen Breaux)

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Guilbeau are shown at the reception given in their honor following their wedding ceremony Sunday in Our Lady of Wisdom chapel on the SLI campus. The bride is the former Miss Shirley Melancon.

Miss Shirley Melancon Weds Mr. Ned Guilbeau

Miss Shirley Melancon became the bride of Mr. Ned Guilbeau Sunday at ceremonies solemnized in Our Lady Wisdom chapel on the Southwestern Louisiana Institute campus. She is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Melancon of Lafayette and Mr. J. O. Melancon of Freeport, Tex. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Guilbeau of Scott.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Irving DeBlanc, SLI Catholic chaplain.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue suit with pink and blue accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage and carried a crystal rosary and white lace handkerchief.

Miss Emma Lou Domingue of Lafayette was the brides only attendant. She wore a pale blue suit with grey suede accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Attending the groom was Mr. J E. Roy of Lafayette. The ushers were Messrs. Allen Guilbeau and Edmond Dugas.

During the ceremony Mr. Jimmy Hernandez presented organ selections and Miss Vergie Tate sang "O Holy Night".

A reception was held at the Catholic Student center after the wedding with the bridal party and Mesdames Melancon and Guilbeau receiving the guests.

Mrs. Melancon was attired in a black dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue suit with an orchid corsage.

White gladioli and daisies predominated in the reception rooms. On one of the refreshment tables was an arrangement of white camellias and a three-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table Serving were the Mesdames LeRoy Salsman, Jr., Charles Boudreaux and Jules Meaux, aunts of the bride.

Immediately after the reception the couple left on a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. The bride wore a grey suit with navy blue accessories. Upon returning the bridal pair will make their home in Lafayette.

Mrs. Guilbeau graduated from Freeport high school in Freeport, Tex. and the groom graduated from Scott high school and SLI.

WINS PROMOTION — After being promoted to sergeant at Fort Lewis, Wash., Charles Guilbeau of Lafayette, is congratulated by Lt. Col. John T. Evans, commander of the 82d Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion. Sergeant Guilbeau, whose wife, Shirley, lives at 108 Woodrow, is a member of the intelligence section in headquarters Battery. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guilbeau of Scott, La., he entered the Army in January 1953. (U. S. Army Photo).

Guilbeau Infant

Funeral services were held at St. John's cemetery Saturday at 10 a.m. for Allen David Guilbeau, infant, who died at a Lafayette hospital Friday at 8 p.m. Interment was in St. John's Catholic Cemetery.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Roy D. Edwards, pastor of St. Anthony's Church at Lafayette.

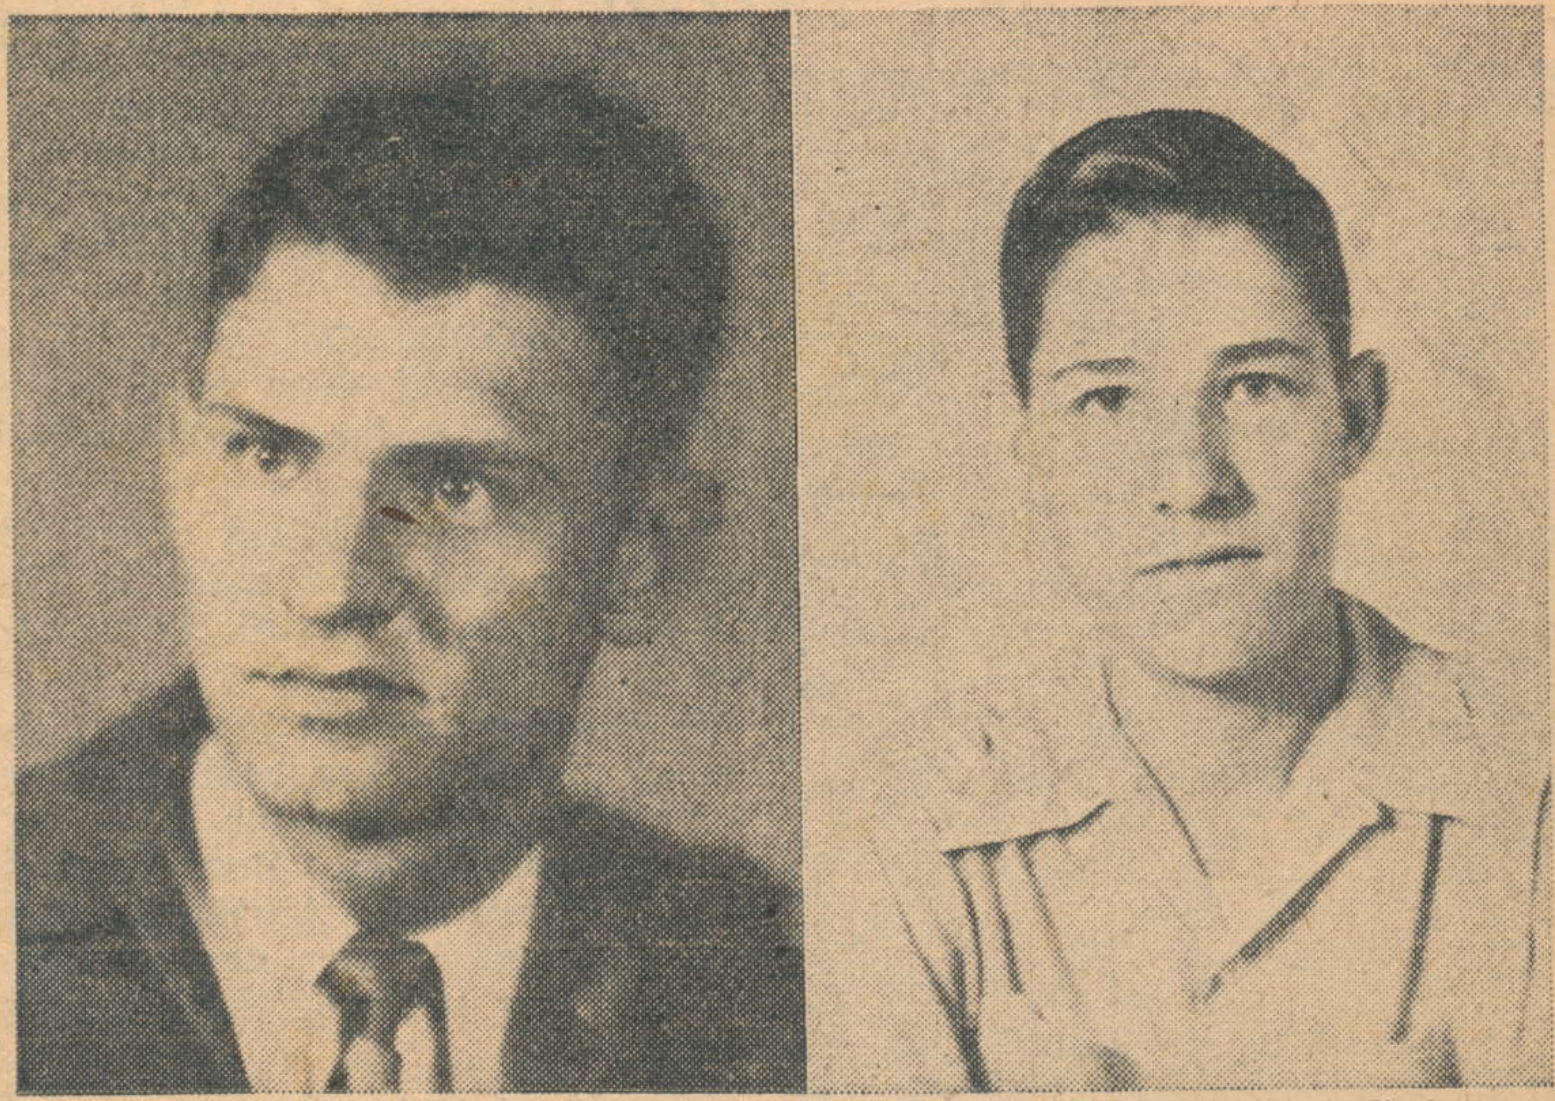
Survivors include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Guilbeau, Lafayette; one sister, Annette and one brother, Charles, both of Lafayette; the maternal grandparents, J. O. Melancon of Freeport, Tex. and Mrs. Marie Melancon of Lafayette, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Armand Guilbeau of Scott.

The First National Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Allen Paul Guilbeau

11

Attend FFA Meet



Ned and Allen Guilbeau, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guilbeau of Scott will attend the National Future Farmer convention in Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 7. Ned, left, graduate of Scott high school, is a student in vocational agriculture at SLI. He was state treasurer and state president of the Louisiana FFA and received his state farmer degree in 1949. At the convention, he will receive the American Farmer degree. He is also a candidate for national office. Allen is vice-president of the Scott FFA chapter and a junior in high school. Their father received the honorary state farmer degree at the 22nd state FFA meet in Baton Rouge.

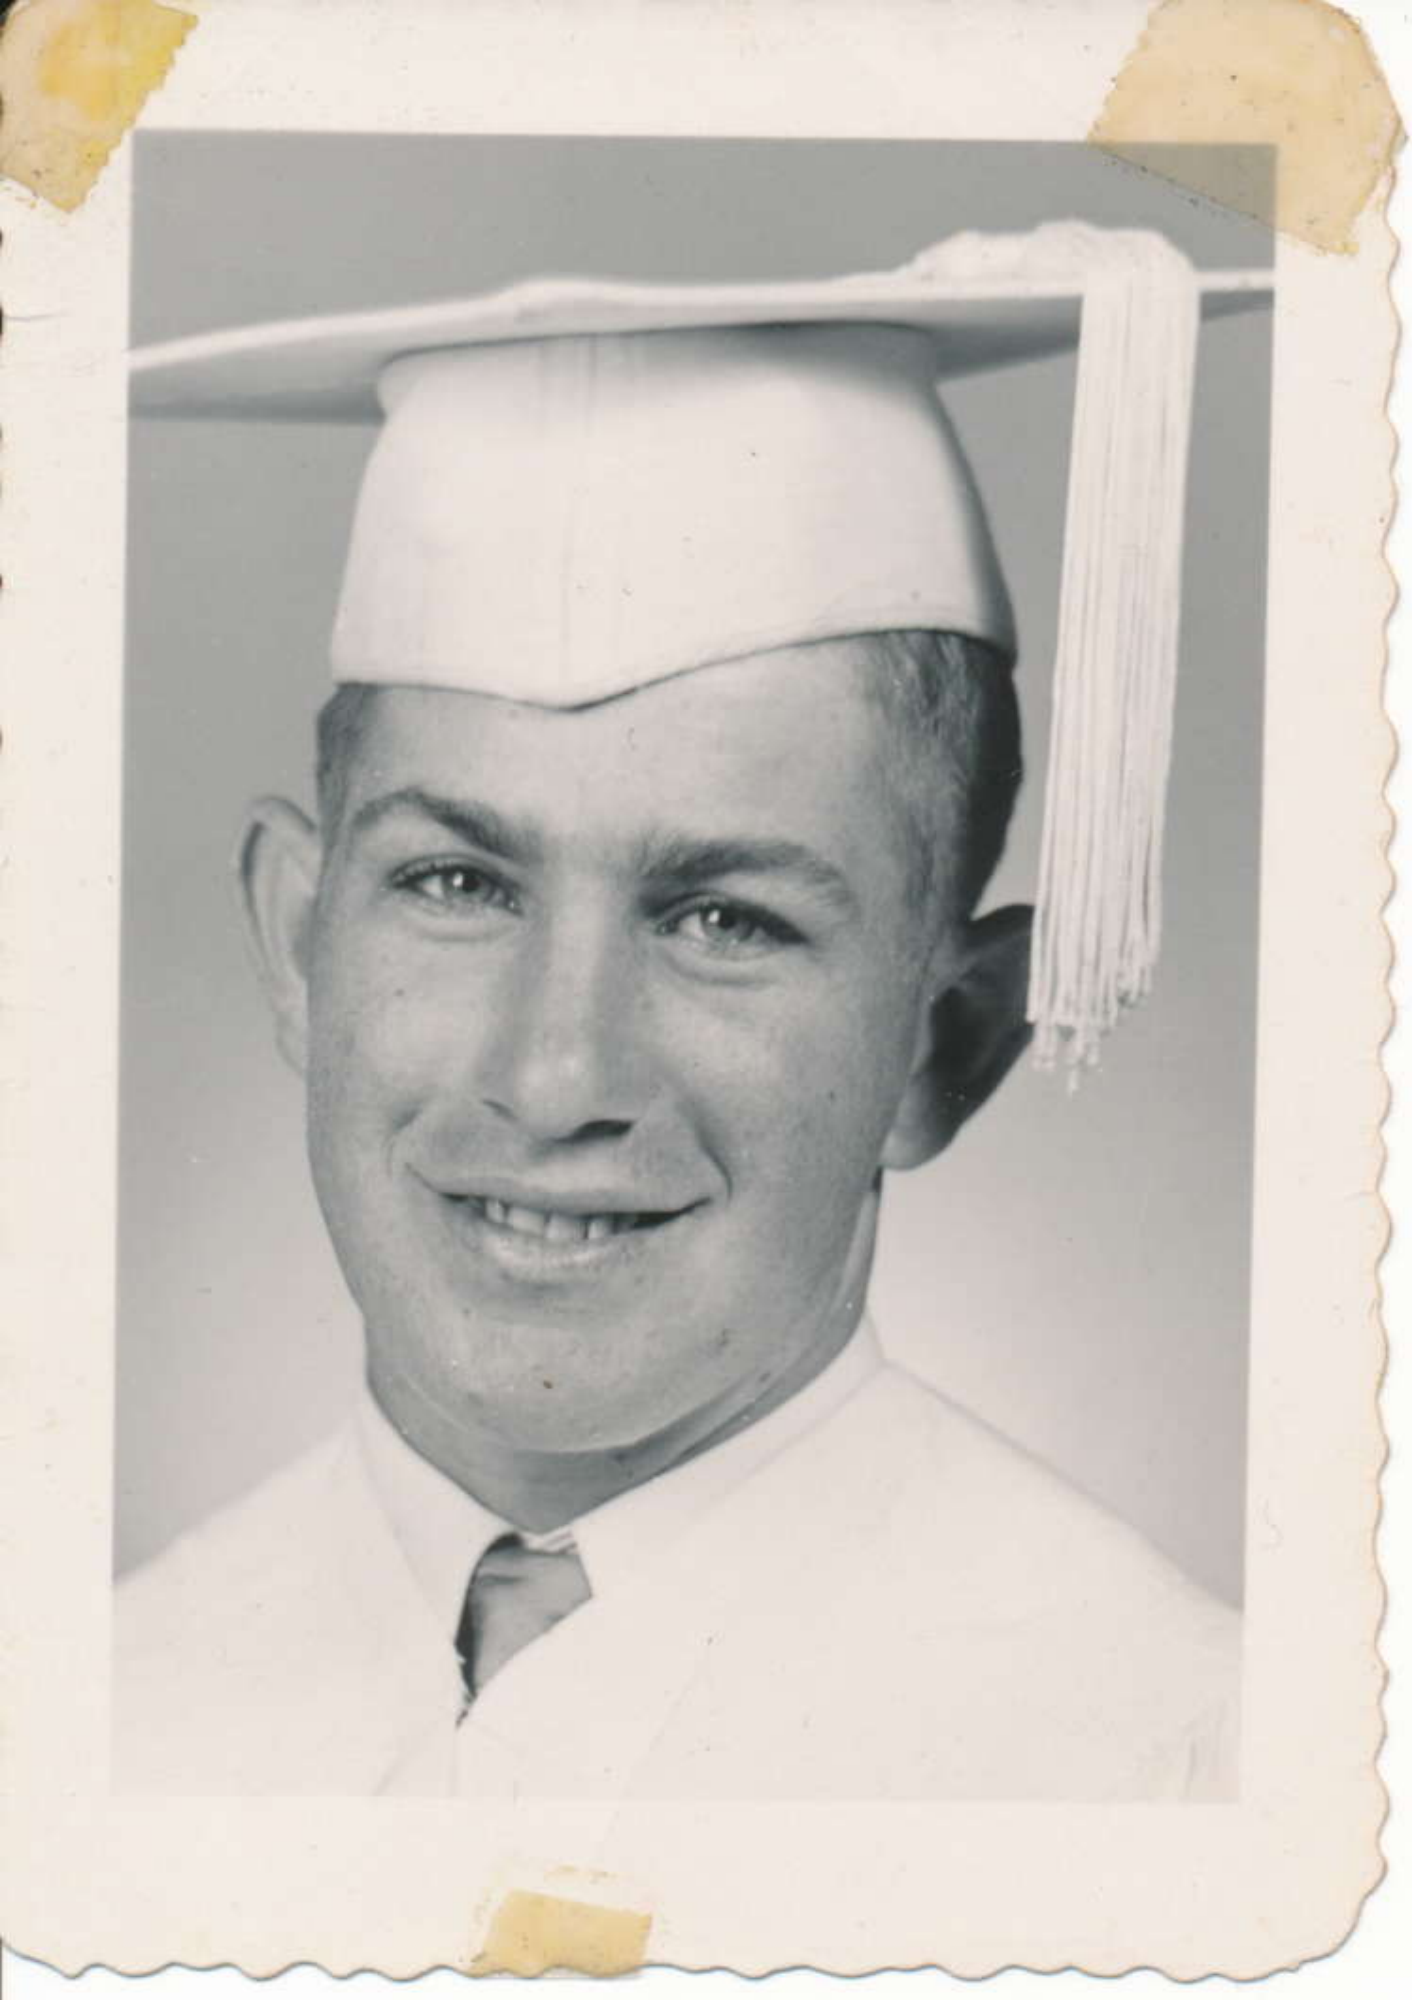


PHOTO BY:
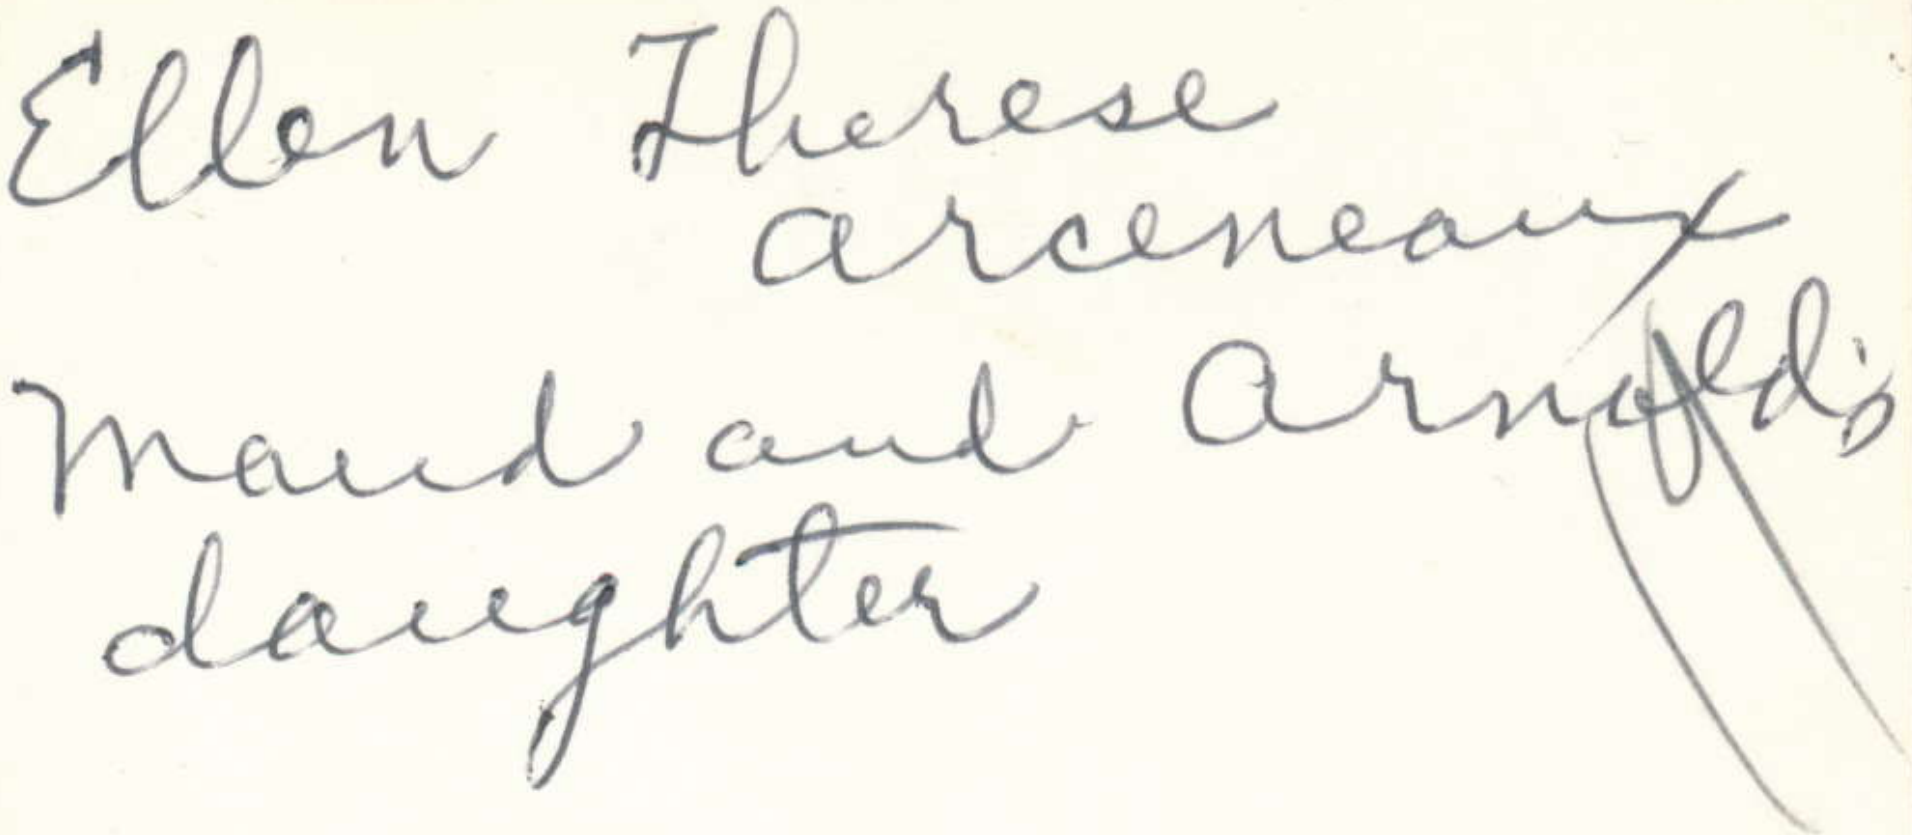
NODILY J. FAULK

II

Maud Guilbeau.

Maud Guilbeau



Ellen Therese
arceneaux
Maud and Arnold's daughter

AUG • 65

THIS IS A

KODACOLOR PRINT

Made by Kodak

WEEK OF OCT. 18 - 58 RM

THIS IS A

KODACOLOR PRINT

Made by Kodak

WEEK OF OCT. 18 - 58 RM

Oren John Guilbeau

MOORE'S STUDIO
BAYFIELD, LA.

To: Locade

Oren Guilbeau

Grandma

John Oren

Guilbeau

OPTIMIST CLUB AWARDS — Scholarships to Southwestern Louisiana Institute in the amount of $250 each awarded by the Lafayette Optimist Club are presented by Leon Moncla (left), president, (center), to Carroll Dartez, (second from left), Youngsville, and John O. Guilbeau (center), Scott, who were selected from among several applicants by members of the SLI Special Committee on Scholarships. Offering their congratulations are Joel L. Fletcher (second from right), president of Southwestern, and Dr. Hebert A. Hamilton, dean of the college of commerce at SLI. Dartez, who received the freshman award, will enroll at Southwestern this fall in the College of Engineering, majoring in petroleum engineering. Guilbeau, recipient of the sophomore award, is majoring in science-mathematics education.

HUB CITY KIWANIS SCHOLARSHIP—John Guilbeau (center) of Scott has been awarded a $100-scholarship by the Hub City Kiwanis Club. Guilbeau is an education major at Southwestern Louisiana Institute and is state vice-president of the Future Farmers of America. Dr. Howard Turner (left) spoke to the club on the role of a civic club in vocational guidance and the teacher shortage problem. At right is W. R. Paine, chairman of the club's vocational guidance committee.

Scott Youth Wins Local Scholarship

The Hub City Kiwanis Club awarded John O. Guilbeau a $100 scholarship Thursday night at its weekly meeting at Jacob's Four Corners.

John Guilbeau graduated from Scott High School last year. He ranked third in his class, presided over the area Future Farmers of America meeting last month and is state vice president of FFA.

He attended Boy's Pelican State last year. He is now a second semester major in education at Southwestern Louisiana Institute with a minor in science. He was an outstanding student in his first semester.

Following the presentation of the award, Dr. Harold Turner, SLI director of the student teacher training, spoke on the need for more teachers and the work that a civic club might do to help in vocational guidance and teacher shortage problems.

He pointed out that nearly one and a half million more children are entering kindergarten today than are graduating from high school in America.

The need for trained and qualified teachers and more schools is great he said, but the community must do much to meet this need. More respect and better working conditions for teachers in FUTURE FARMER — John Oran Guilbeau, of the Scott chapter of the Future Farmers of America, attended the Louisiana convention of the FFA held last week in Shreveport. At the convention he was elected vice president of the state association of the FFA. He also received a state farmers degree, the highest degree a state farm boy can achieve. The young farmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guilbeau of Scott.

June 11 - 1956

STATE FFA OFFICER— John Oran Guilbeau of the Scott Future Farmers of America Chapter (above), was elected first vice president of the organization at a recent state election of officers in Shreveport. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guilbeau of Scott.

Rose Mae Guilbeau And John Guilbeau Are Wed In Sts. Peter And Paul Church

Rose Mae Guilbeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guilbeau, Scott, and John Oran Guilbeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guilbeau, Scott, were married, yesterday at 10:30 a.m. at a nuptial mass in Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Scott.

Rev. Daniel Schexnayder officiated at the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Roy Edwards and Rev. L. M. Fournet.

The bride given away in marriage by her father wore a street length dress of white satin designed in roses with long sleeves in small gathers. The bodice had a boat neckline that came to a V point in the back. Her headpiece was a finger tip veil of illusion with pearl accented flowers and she carried a cascade of red roses. She wore a single strand of pearls as her only jewelry.

Miss Camilla Michael, New Orleans, was maid of honor. She wore a peacock blue peau de soie dress accented with a rose on the back of the waistline. For a headpiece she wore a crushed rose and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendant was Mrs. Carrol Guilbeau, Abbeville, sister-in-law of the bride. She wore a dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Paul A. Guilbeau, brother of the groom, was best man and groomsman was Edmund Dugas, cousin of the groom.

Ushers were, Ned Guilbeau, brother of the groom and Malcolm Guilbeau brother of the bride.

J. V. Viator and Norwood Guidry sang "Ave Verun," "I Need Thee Precious Jesus," Panis Angelicus," Sancte Maria", and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," Mrs. Terry Roy, was the organist.

Reception

Following the ceremony the reception was held at Jacob's Restaurant, in the Louisiana Room. Receiving the guests were the parents of the bride and groom the couple and the wedding party.

Mrs. Walter Guilbeau wore for her daughter's wedding a green dress with the matching jacket. Her accessories were brown and she chose a corage of a white philanophenosis orchid.

Mrs. Armond Guilbeau wore a blue - green wool dress with black accessories for her son's wedding. Her corsage was a white philanophenosis orchid.

The main table overlaid with a white cloth held a three-tiered cake adorned with a gold marriage symbol. Arrangements of carnations and red roses were placed on the tabl. Single red roses were placd on the guest book table.

Mrs. John Oran Guilbeau

For a wedding trip, the bride wore a beige wool jacket dress with lizard shoes and bag. She wore a beige coat trimmed with a mink collar. Her corsage was red roses.

Upon their return the couple will reside in Lafayette.

The bride graduated from Scott High School and also graduated from the Charity Hospital School of Nursing in New Orleans. The bridegroom graduated from Scott High School also and he got his B. S. Degree from U. S. L. and M. Ed. Degree from S.H.S.T.C., Huntsville, Texas.

Out of town guests were from Thibodaux, Abbeville, Crowley, New Iberia, Church Point, Carencro, Lawtell, Kaplan, Rayne, Duson, New Orleans, Houston and Port Neches, Texas.

MAY 1957

MAY 1957

AUG • 56

AUG • 65 •

Aug. • 63 ©

ODGE
239 387

AUG • 65

AUG • 65

AUG • 65

AUG • 65

AUG • 65